Windſor, October 14.

THE following Addreſs from the County of Kilkenny, was preſented to Her Majeſty by his Grace the Duke of Ormond.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen and Freeholders of the County of Kilkenny, aſſembled at their Aſſizes; together with the Right Reverend the Lord Biſhop of Oſſory, and the Reverend his Clergy.

Moſt Dread Sovereign,

AS the Bleſſings of Peace are many and diffuſive, and all Your People may in ſome meaſure participate in them; ſo they juſtly challenge from us, Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, our grateful Acknowledgments, in the humbleſt manner preſented to Your Majeſty, for accompliſhing ſo glorious and advantageous a One for us:

A Peace wholly owing to Your Majeſty's good Diſpoſition, and the unwearied Diligence and ſteady Application of Your Able and Faithful Miniſtry, Eminent Patriots equally deſerving Your Royal Favour, and the publick Applauſe of their Country: A Peace which fully convinces the World of Your conſummate Wiſdom, as the Succeſs of Your Arms diſplay'd the Greatneſs of Your Power.

Your Majeſty's taking Notice of the Proteſtant Succeſſion on this Occaſion, and declaring ſo firm a Friendſhip between Your Royal Perſon and the moſt Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover, as it gives entire Satisfaction to all honeſt Men that deſire the Continuance of Peace, and regard Poſterity: So it is ſufficient to remove all Doubts and Scruples, too unwarily entertain'd by ſome, and too induſtriouſly and unwarrantably ſuggeſted by others.

May the Author of Peace and Lover of Concord bleſs Your Majeſty with length of Days; may all odious Diſtinctions among Churchmen be for ever buried, and no other Conteſt than a hearty Emulation who ſhall with ſtricteſt Duty ſerve the Beſt of Queens, and greateſt Care preſerve the beſt of Conſtitutions.

Which Addreſs Her Majeſty received very graciouſly.

Turin, September 30. N. S. On the 25th their Majeſties ſet out from hence, and it is thought they are by this time arrived at Nice, where they intend to embark on Board the Britiſh Squadron for Sicily. The Prince of Piedmont intends to paſs a few Days at Rakonis, before he returns to this Place. The Dutcheſs-Dowager, who has been indiſpoſed for ſome time, is now perfectly recovered. The Marquis de Mourrous is gone to the Court of Madrid, with the Character of Ambaſſador-Extraordinary from the King of Sicily. We have frequent Accounts of Murthers committed on the Highways by a Band of Robbers, that have lately form'd themſelves into a Body near Novarra in the Milaneſe, but it is believed the Government of that Province will take effectual care to ſuppreſs them very ſpeedily. We have received Advice from Genoa, that the Garriſon of Final had evacuated that Place, and the Imperial Governor had put Signor Cataneo, Commiſſary-General of the Republick, into Poſſeſſion of the Fortreſs, with all its Dependencies.

Warſaw, October 3. N. S. Moſt of the Saxon Troops are already arrived in this Kingdom. A Tax has been laid upon Chimneys for their Maintenance, and the Miniſters of this Court meet every Day, in order to ſettle their Winter Quarters. To morrow King Auguſtus intends to ſet out for Otsfoſch. His Majeſty has bought the Palace of the Great Mareſchal of the Crown, lately deceaſed, for which he paid Fifty thouſand Crowns. But as it would coſt a much greater Sum to put this Houſe in repair, it is thought he will order it to be quite pulled down, and build a new one in the ſame Place. Count Flemming went from hence a few Days ago towards Pomerania. In his way he is to ſtop at Elbing, in order to examine the Perſons that were Arreſted there upon Suſpicion of having form'd a Conſpiracy againſt the Perſon of King Auguſtus. We are now under no Apprehenſion of an Invaſion from the Turks and Tartars, who are retired from the Frontiers of Podolia. The Grand Signior has likewiſe diſpatch'd a Miniſter, with Directions to aſſure this Court, that he will adhere to his Reſolution to preſerve a good Underſtanding, and to live in Peace with his Majeſty and this Commonwealth.

Vienna, October 4. N. S. On the 1ſt Inſtant his Imperial Majeſty entered into the Nine and twentieth Year of his Age. His Birth-day was celebrated with leſs Magnificence than uſual, upon account of the Contagious Diſtemper, which ſtill encreaſes in this City. One or two of the Empreſs-Dowager's Family having dy'd of it, all her Apartments at Court are ſhut up, and her Majeſty herſelf is retired for ſome time to the Convent of St. Clare. Cardinal Piazza, who has reſided here ſeveral Years in the Quality of Pope's Nuntio, went away two Days ago, in order to return to Rome. Letters from Adrianople confirm our former Accounts, that the Grand Signior was reſolved to maintain the Treaty of Peace concluded at Carlowitz, and to commit no act of Hoſtility againſt Poland. The King of Sweden had not declared when he would ſet out for his own Dominions, and it was ſaid, the Port had ſent him notice they expected to be paid all the Money they had lent him, before he went away. The uſual Allowance that had been made to his Envoy was ſtopt, upon Pretence that it was not neceſſary to have a Miniſter in a Place where the King his Sovereign was preſent in Perſon. However, as there
